

What Is SSEG Registration & Why Does It Matter?

Most municipalities and Eskom now require residential solar systems connected to the grid to be registered. The process is technical — involving COC, SLD, engineering sign-off, and municipal approval — and difficult to navigate without professional support.

⚠ Risks of non-registration: Administrative fines, contravention notices, municipality enforcement, potential disconnection, and compliance failures.

NSRA

